

NOW SERIES

The "Now" series is an invitation to enjoy the moment. Each wine in this collection captures a value that is fundamental to the Ochoa family: resilience, tradition, honesty, the celebration of friendship, or the quest of joy.

ROSADO DE LÁGRIMA 2024

True evolution is based on a deep respect for the TRADITION that precedes us. Our Rosado de Lágrima has always known how to represent balance between the new and the usual. It reminds us who we are and encourages us to imagine the future.

Grape variety:

40% Garnacha, Merlot 40%
y Cabernet Sauvignon 20%

ABV:
13%

Winemaking

Crafted using the traditional "bleeding" method leading to a deep raspberry tone. During the bleeding, the must remains in contact with the skins for 4 to 6 hours, being after transferred to a tank where fermentation is carried at 18°C in order to preserve the freshest and most delicate aromas.

Tasting

Beautiful bright pink color with light lilac tones, reminiscent of its youth. On the nose, it shows aromas of red fresh fruits such as red currant and strawberry. On the palate it is long and complex, showing personality and with some balsamic notes.

Pairing

I am fresh like the summer breeze. I go very well with casual finger food, rice dishes, pasta, white meats and garden vegetables.

Shall I open it or save it?

This wine reaches your hands at its prime, but we invite you to save a bottle and put it to the test in 1-2 years to come. You will find out that rosé wines can also be lovely with a certain age.

Available in box of 6 bottles of 75cl.
